Central Basin Groundwater Storage Plan

Detailed Review of Draft PEIR

Date: Thursday, February 23, 2012

Time: 10:00 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

Location: Central Basin Municipal Water District
6252 Telegraph Road
Commerce, CA 90040

Central Basin Municipal Water District has extended the review period for the draft Programmatic Environmental Impact Report (PEIR) of the Central Basin Groundwater Storage Plan until March 1, 2012. The extension was in response to stakeholder requests and will allow a total of 110 days for interested parties to provide comments.

This workshop will provide a detailed review of the draft PEIR for the Central Basin Groundwater Storage Plan. To learn more about the groundwater storage plan or the CEQA process, please visit www.centralbasin.org.
